Sub:- Deputation of Police Party to Amindivi--Kadmath Islands--Anamoly in granting T.A.--Exemption to the S.I.of Police in charge of the party.

Ref:- G.O.Ms.No.442, Home, dated 7-2-53 communicated with C.O. endorsementF.O.C.No.213/W/53 dated 18-2-53.

Deputation of Police party consisting of One Sub-Inspector, one Head Constable and 5 Police constables of local Police andone Head Constable one Naik and 10 Police constables of Armed Reserve of this district was sanctionedin the Government Order referred to above for investigation and detection of mischief and thefts committed in Amindivi-Kadmath Islands and the party which was on that special duty sailed on the afternoon of 1-3-53 and returned to the mainland and reported for duty on 1-5-53 F.n.

2) According to Annexure V to the M.T.A.rules under item 19 note (1) (b)(iv) (M.M.of S.P.& A.Vol.I Part II)amended in G.O.Ms.No.169 Finance (C.S.R) department dated 20-2-52 communicated with C.O.endt.Rc.No.266/Aud/52 dated 8-3-52 men who come under Grade X to XIII (Drawing a pay of Rs.80/- and below) were paid D.A.at three times the ordinary rate, i.e., Head Constables--Rs.6/- and Police constables Rs.2/4 per day) ontheir visit to the Islands.

3(Sub-Inspector Sri K.Balakrishnan Nair (pay Rs.83/- p.m) who was in charge of the whole party during the period and who comes under Grade IX of the M.T.A.Rule cited in Para(2) above was paid D.A.at ordinary rate i.e., Rs.2/4 per day since he is not entitled for the benefit of the enhanced rate under the existing rules.

4. The S.I.now represents that while he was in the Islands, where he was not getting any compensatory allowance or extra emoluments, he had to keep up the standard and dignity of a sub-Inspector of Police in charge of the special party and on account of which he had to incur extra expenses which caused him great hardship and requests that his representations be considered as a special case.

5. The Sub-Inspector's request seems to be reasonable and I consider that it is an anamoly in granting Daily Allowance at Rs.2/4 per day to the Sub-Inspector while Rs.6/- and Rs.2/4 per day was paid to the H.Cs and P.Cs respectively working under his charge.

6) I therefore request that the Government may please be addressed to remove anamoly in the case of this S.I.as a special case and to grant him Daily allowance at three times the ordinary rate i.e., Rs.6/12 per diem.

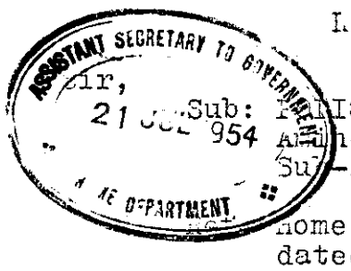
Rc.No.1064/Aud/53, dated 20th July 1954.



Sir,

Sub: POLICE-South Kanara district-Police Party deputed to Amindivi Islands-Increased daily allowance to the Sub-Inspector of Police.

Ref: Home Department memorandum No. 167665/Fol.II/53-2, dated 21.12.53.

I enclose copies of memoranda Rc.No.B2/12447/53, dated 4.6.54 and 27.6.54 from the District Superintendent of Police, South Kanara. The Head constables and constables were allowed daily allowance at three times the ordinary rate for the entire period of their halt at Amindivi and Kadmath Islands from 2.3.53 to 30.4.53. The two Islands are situated at a distance of eight miles each and it was necessary in the interests of efficient administration to keep the Police Party not at a fixed point or Head-quarters for the entire period but they had to be moved from one Island to the other at frequent intervals for their prompt and proper functioning. Moreover, the restriction of drawal of full daily allowance for the first 10 days and 3/4th Daily allowance for the remaining period as per Madras Travelling Allowance Rule 44 will not apply in their case as per item 1 of the list appended to Annexure IV to the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules.

2. The Sub-Inspector who was directed to furnish the particulars of the extra-expenditure incurred by him during the period of his deputation states that the particulars are not available with him now and that he has incurred a total expenditure of Rs.359/-. He is ordinarily eligible for a daily allowance of Rs.2.4.0 per day. The fact that the Head constables who are subordinate to him were paid Rs.6/- per day, justifies the claim for enhanced daily allowance in his case. Against the average daily expenditure of Rs.6.14. 0 incurred by the Sub-Inspector while he was in the Islands, he was paid only Rs.2.4.0 per day, thus putting him to hardship monetarily for the trip undertaken by him in public interest. I therefore request the Government to sanction the grant of increased daily allowance to the Sub-Inspector at three times the ordinary rate as already recommended in my letter Rc.No.655/Aud/53,dated 17.8.53.

Sub: Police-South Kanara district-Police party deputed to Amindivi Islands-Increased daily allowance to Sub-Inspector Sri K.Balakrishna Nair.

Ref: Chief Office endorsement Rc.1064/Aud/53,dated 28.12.1953.

Daily allowance at three times the ordinary rate was allowed to the Head constables and constables for the entire period of their journey and halts at Amindivi and Kadmath islands viz. 2.3.53 to 30.4.53 under Note 1 (b)(iv) in Annexure V to the Madras Travelling Allowance rules.

2. The Sub-Inspector who was directed to furnish the particulars of day-to-day expenditure incurred by him while in the islands states that the particulars are not available with him now and that he has incurred a total expenditure of Rs.359/- for the entire period of his stay in the islands.

3. The rate of Daily allowance admissible to the Sub-Inspector under the ordinary rules is Rs.2.4.0 per day as his pay is Rs.83/- But the Head constables and the constables who accompanied him to the islands were allowed Daily allowance at three times the ordinary rate of Rs.2/- and 0.12.0 respectively under note 1(b)(iv) in Annexure V to Madras Travelling allowance rules. Thus the Head constables who were the Sub-Inspector's assistants got Rs.6.0.0 per day while the Sub-Inspector was paid only Rs.2.4.0 per day. The fact that the Head constables who were only subordinate to the Sub-Inspector were paid Rs.6/- per day and that the Sub-Inspector had to incur a total expenditure of Rs.35/- during his stay in the islands justifies the Sub-Inspector's claim for enhanced daily allowance. Against the average daily expenditure of Rs.6.14.0 incurred by the Sub-Inspector while he was in the islands he was paid only a daily allowance of Rs.2.4.0 and thus he was put to much hardship monetarily for undertaking this trip in public interests.

P 123 & 40K No. 116

4. In the circumstances detailed above, I request that the claim of the Sub-Inspector for the enhanced daily allowance for the period of journeys and halts at three times the ordinary rate to which he is eligible while on the mainland may please be considered favourably and orders passed.

Daily allowance at three times the ordinary rate was allowed to the Head constables and constables for the entire period of their journey and halts at Amindivi and Kadmath islands viz.2.3.53 to 30.4.53 at the full rates of Rs.6/- and Rs.2/4 per diem under the special circumstances detailed herebelow:-

2. Kind reference is invited to the correspondence in endorsement No.230426-Pol.I/52-1, Home department dated 12.12.52 and ending with Chief Office endorsement Poc.213/W/53,dated 18.2.53 wherein the necessity and urgency for the deputation of a Police party consisting of 1 Head constable, 1 Naik and 10 constables of Armed Reserve for maintaining law and order and 1 Sub-Inspector, 1 Head constable and 5 constables of the Taluk Police for investigation of cases of theft etc. in the islands was considered and ordered. The two islands are situated at a distance of eight miles from each. It was necessary in the interests of efficient administration of the islands to uphold law and order, to investigate the cases of mischief and theft committed by some of the residents in the islands and also to impress on the islanders the idea to be peaceful and law abiding. This aspect of the deputation conceived the activities of the Police party in both these islands, not at a fixed point or headquarters for any prolonged period but circumscribed the entire area of the two islands during the stay in the islands and called forth movements enmasse of the police party at intervals for their prompt and proper functioning. The party was also advised to act accordingly and to keep the entire party always alert and on the move, lest they should be marooned by any prehatched efforts of the offending islanders. The marches of the police party were, therefore, justified. It was not intended that the party was to be stationed for the entire period of the deputation at any one place as already indicated above. The question of obtaining the sanction of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Western Range for the grant of Travelling allowance to this, party under rule 4'(1) of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules could not, ariba in the circumstances.

POLICE- Deputation of police party to Amindivi Kadmath Islands- Increased d.a. to the S.I. in charge of the police party-Sanction.

From the I.G. of Police, R.C.No.655/Aud/53 dated 17-8-53

In G.O.Ms.No.442, Home d.7-2-53, the Govt. sanctioned the deputation for a period of 2 months of:-

(1) an armed police party consisting of 1 H.C. 1 Naik and 10 P.Cs. for maintaining law and order in the Amindivi Kadmath islands; and

(2) a staff of 1 S.I., 1 H.C. and 5 P.Cs. for investigating certain cases of theft etc. in the islands.

The party started for their special duty on the A.N. of 1-3-53 and returned to the mainland and reported for duty on 1-5-53 F.N. With ref. to item 19, note (1) (b) (iv) in Annexure V to the M.T.A. Rules, subordinates on Rs.80/- and less in the Malabar and S.Kanara districts are eligible for d.a. at 3 times the ordinary rate while absent from the main land on visit to the Laccadives.

2. The D.S.P. S.Kanara has stated that the H.Cs. and P.Cs. were accordingly granted d.a. at Rs.6/- and Rs.2-4-0 per day respectively ie. at three times the rate ordinarily admissible to them viz., Rs.2/- and Rs.0-12-0 per day. The D.S.P. has stated that the S.I. has represented that while the S.I. was in the islands he was not getting any compensatory allowance or extra emoluments and that he had to keep up the standard and dignity of a S.I. of Police in charge of the spl. duty on account of which he had to incur extra expenditure which caused him great hardship. The D.S.P. has also pointed out that it is an anomaly that the S.I. should have been allowed only a d.a. of Rs.2-4-0 per day while the H.C. and the P.Cs. who went with him were paid

Rs.6/- and Rs.2-4-0 per day respectively. The D.S.P accordingly has recommended that the S.I. may also be allowed d.a. at thrice the ordinary rate admissible to him, namely at Rs.6-12-0 per day. The I.G. of Police agreed with the D.S.P. and he has requested that d.a. at 3 times the ordinary rate may be sanctioned to the S.I., namely Sri K. Balakrishnan Nair for the period from 2-3-53 to 30-4-53 .

para 1, p 3 ✓

3 It is submitted that as pointed out by the D.S.P. it is really an anomaly that the S.I. should be eligible under the rule for a d.a. of Rs.2-4-0 only, ~~while~~ the H.Cs. and P.Cs. are eligible for d.a. at Rs.6/- and Rs.2-4-0 per day. It would also appear that the S.I. may have had to bear considerable extra expenditure in connection with his deputation and that his d.a. may not have been sufficient to cover it. The I.G., however, has not given ~~publicity~~ particulars regarding the extra expenditure incurred by the S.I. Under M.T.A. Rule 44 (c) the halting allowance should be so regulated as to cover the extra expenditure admitted as legitimate, but no more, and the drawal of halting allowance for periods in excess of 30 days requires the sanction of the Govt. In the present case, the S.I. and party were away on deputation from 2-3-53 to 30-4-53, i.e. for 60 days altogether. It is not known whether d.a. at the enhanced rate was allowed (to the) H.Cs. and constables (for the entire period) and if so, under what authority. The I.G. may be asked to make this point clear, and he may also be asked to report, with ref. to rule 44 (c) what extra expenditure per day was incurred by the S.I. during his deputation.

Please see the note of this Dept. on pp.1-2 ante, the memo. to the I.G. on pp.7-8 c.f. and his reply on p.11 c.f. The I.G. has stated that daily allowance at 3 times the ordinary rate was allowed to the Head Constables and Constables by the D.S.P., South Kanara, With reference to item 1 of the list appended to annexure IV to the M.T.A.Rules. It is submitted that although under item 19 Note(1)(b)(iv) in annexure V to the M.T.A.Rules, subordinates on Rs.80/- and less are eligible for daily allowance at 3 times the ordinary rate while absent from the mainland on visit to the Laccadives, the drawal of halting allowance ~~from~~ for periods in excess of 30 days requires the sanction of Govt. vide Rules 44(1)(c) of M.T.A.Rules. It does not appear that the action of the D.S.P. in sanctioning daily allowance at enhanced rates for 60 days without referring to Govt. is correct. Fin. may confirm.

As regards the S.I. it is reported that he has no particulars of extra expenditure per day incurred by him and that he had incurred a total expenditure Rs.359/- which works out to Rs.6/- per day as against the request for enhanced daily allowance at Rs.6/14/- per day.

In the special circumstances of the case, perhaps the actual expenditure incurred by the S.I. namely, Rs.359/- may be sanctioned as a special case. Fin. may see for remarks.

2. Under M.T.A. Rule 44, daily allowance may be drawn at full rates for the first 10 days and at ¾th the ordinary rates for the next 20 days. The drawal of daily allowance in excess of the 30 days requires the sanction of Government and the rate of daily allowance to be allowed after 30 days is left to the discretion of the Government, in each case. The drawal of daily allowance under this rule is at present regulated as follows:-

Halts in excess of 30 days	½ rates

Under Note (1)(b)(iv) in Annexure V of the M.T.A. Rules the daily allowance of subordinates on Rs 80/- and less in the Malabar and South Kanara Districts will be at the rates admissible on the main land and at three times the ordinary rates while on duty from the main land on visit to the Laccadive, Aminidivi and Minicoy Islands. With reference to the above provisions, the subordinates will ordinarily be eligible to get the three times the rate of daily allowance admissible to them on the main land for their journeys to the islands as follows:--

First 10 days	3 X full rates.

But under item 1 in Annexure IV to the M.T.A. With reference to this special provision, the drawal of daily allowance by the Constables in this case at full rates for the entire period of halts without the special sanction of Government is in order.
